

Dramatic Discovery - Winter 2022

Instructor:	Alan Fehr
Description:	Our class is built off of a 3 layer foundation: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Art is when we take an idea, thought or emotion from inside ourselves and express it in a way for others to see. That means everyone is an artist, because everyone expresses what is inside themselves. • The more we practice expressing ourselves, the better we get at being understood by others and understanding them. • When we listen to others and create with others, we learn teamwork. We can express ourselves better when we work as a team. We meet these goals through lots and lots of playing. We use improv games to get comfortable with expressing ideas without self-editing. We learn about story structure and act out our stories to get familiar with the stage. We collaborate and share with each other to make sure we're all contributing to the project. Our class has a very strong focus on self-expression which is vital for a successful actor later in life. This means that script memorization isn't required or even suitable for our students, many of whom are only starting their journey into independent reading.
